
USA #30???

What the fuck? After a draw with Argentina, a respectable showing in the first half vs Spain, and a 9-0 aggregate against Barbados, we at least should have stayed at 21 if not moving up one spot or falling less than 3. But 30? Mexico, who we stomped last year is 19, falling from 14....how in the hell. What the hell is FIFA thinking. We have a squad of very talented guys that dont deserve that low of a rank.

fifa rankings dont mean anything. #32 poland had a good effort in the euro cup while #15 england didnt even qualify
